

When programs are not captioned, I lose the ability to enjoy them. At that point, they are just people moving around on the screen with no meaning. Many stations run older movies without captioning, in violation of the FCC standards. Stations should be held accountable for their actions.